

Shuang Li, NWS, AIS, WW, SDWS, LPAPA

Born, raised and classically trained in China, Shuang Li received her BA Degree in Graphic Design and Master Degree in Art History. After moving to the United States, Shuang then received her MFA (Master of Fine Art) Degree from The Department of Art, University of Oregon in 1991.

Following the traditional “En Plein Air” Impressionism approach, Shuang paints watercolor both on locations and in her studio, portrays the extraordinary variety of life with her unique perspective. With masterful classic and contemporary techniques, Shuang recreates nature’s beauty in her paintings, captures moods and moments, light and colors with her singular poetic visual expression.

A signature member of National Watercolor Society, American Impressionist Society, San Diego Watercolor Society, Watercolor West, LPAPA and an Elected Artist Member of California Art Club, Shuang Li’s watercolor paintings have long been favored by collectors, also regularly exhibited in national and international galleries and group shows, with many honorable awards.

With her extensive teaching background, Shuang has been regularly invited by art organizations for her popular plein air painting demonstrations, art workshops and classes, frequently served as an invited juror for art competitions and art exhibitions.

Shuang Li lives with her husband in Escondido, California. She can be reached via:
