

The Premier North Coastal Art Gallery 2020 !

Temporary Gallery closing until April 6th !

Members of Carlsbad-Oceanside Art League:
Primarily based on health concerns being voiced by our members, the Board has decided to close our Gallery-barring unforeseen circumstances-until the April 6, Take-in. We ask that you please leave your art in the Gallery because we are considering the continuation through April. If you chose to remove your art, we ask that you please note the pieces you are taking on the paper provided on the desk.

Charles Dozer, President, Carlsbad-Oceanside Art League.

COAL Reception at the Gallery
Sunday, April 12th, 3pm-5pm

Brenda York has over 25 years of experience in the visual arts. She graduated from Arizona State University with a BFA and has continued her education in the studio arts at Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, La Jolla Athenaeum and Idyllwild Arts.

Her work in illustration and graphic design has been a major influence on her painting career. Ms. York's ability to create compelling compositions as well as striking colors are a direct result of her years studying and working in design and illustration.

She is a member of The San Diego Art Institute, The Athenaeum, Daily PaintWorks and Idyllwild Art Alliance.

Ms. York's paintings are included in collections across the country. Born in the Midwest, she now happily lives and paints in Southern California.
