PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

President's Remarks: Congratulations to our Best of Show winner, Ursula Schroter, with her Drawing/Printmaking piece, "Ghostly #1 (Sold)! In addition, our Black & White SIS winners, 1st Barbara Altevers, 2nd Abby Chamberlin, 3rd Vita Sorrentino. Our SIS winners receive a Cash award! Thanks to All award winners and all who participated in a wonderfully displayed show. Thanks to ALL.

We are poised to enter the Red Tier of Covid-19 restrictions and as such our capacity will increase to 39.015. visitors at one time. We will continue to adhere to the Guidelines and have a possible Gallery Reception on April 18th to celebrate our 2021 Member's Show event. Please remember that Take-in is April 5th and Early Take-in on Saturday and Sunday is available.

Occasionally, at Take-ins, Members ask, "why do we place the burden on the artist to pay the Sales Tax", and "why don't we sell jewelry, and have a "show case" of some type". Because, "it seems nothing happens." Members wonder if they are being heard. Yes, you are. These and other items are discussed at our Board Meetings and the discussion is lively, on both sides. The Board decided to keep the Sales Tax collection the way it is for two reasons: difficulty of cash control at the desk and collection errors that we actually experienced in the past even with charts at the desk. We had to make up the difference. It was advised as a solution that artists mark-up your Sales Price by a percentage to cover the "loss". As far as the display case is concerned, as stated in our By-Laws, we are a Fine Arts organization, and the Board voted to keep it that way. They like the more open, Gallery feeling, and so voted against a display case. The shrink-wrap displays are being re-organized as they were thought to be over-done.

We are looking forward to the Annual Membership Show. Our Judge is Chuck McPherson, a widely known, respected artist and prior judge and "Demo" presenter at our Gallery. Since we will be farther along in our COVID-19 wind-down we expect a wonderful array of art and participation. Best to you all in the coming weeks, and throughout the year.

GALLERY DIRECTOR'S REMARK

The only way our gallery is open is for its members to volunteer to host the gallery for a three-hour shift. We still have one open day to be filled April 1 from 11 to 2 and 2 to 5. Call, text or email me if you can help.

The arrival of Covid-19 vaccines indicates a step towards normalcy, but it doesn't mean you can stop wearing a mask. Mask-wearing and social distancing are vital to keep yourself and others safe while we wait for the vaccine to become more widely available. Precautions like wearing masks and social distancing will continue to be necessary for all hosts and anyone entering the gallery.

The March show is spectacular and includes the Black & White SIS. If you haven't seen the show, please stop by and take a look, and our sales continue to be terrific. We are getting wonderful comments from the general public and kudos to our Display Crew for another outstanding job well done.

April is our annual Members show. Remember get your entries ready and don't forget to renew your membership.
