MAY 4: Lisa McDill, Oil

Creating artwork that is realistic but loose, expressive, and meaningful is an ongoing endeavor. Landscape painting it is a fulfilling experience, and to painting to emphasize an exciting play of light and shadow, within an interesting composition. Visit <http://www.lisamozzini-mcdill.com>

JUNE 8: Richard Hawk, Multimedia Presentation/Process

Hawk's artworks on copper are part of his spiritual practice. He uses the esoteric effects of patina processes on solid sheets of copper as the foundation for his paintings. This co-creation with forces outside of himself is a motivating principle for his art. Visit <https://hawkstudio.com>

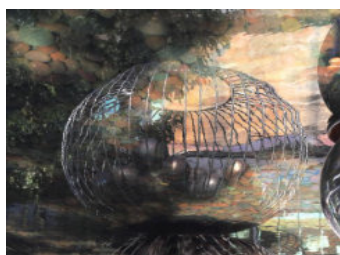

JULY 6: Danny Gregio, Oil

Man made and natural wonders collide! Inspiration stemming from how landscapes integrate with urban settings, such as sturdy man-made structures that co-exist with organic forms of nature. Subjects that don't get a lot attention or interest. Visit <https://www.dannygriegoart.com>
